National conventions have more than one merit. They compel lots of prominent New Yorkers to see the rest of the United States.—Globe-Democrat.

 The Chamber of Commerce in a number of Missouri cities have been asked by Secretary of Agriculture to urge business men and students to spend their vacations doing farm work. In this way he hopes to relieve, to some extent, the farm labor shortage which threatens a serious curtailment of food production. The Associated Industries of Missouri recently sent letters to all country school superintendents in the state and a number of city superintendents asking them to urge this plan upon young men students and teachers. It was pointed out to them that at the prevailing scale of wages young men could very profitably spend the summer months on farms, preferably in their home communities, and thus perform a real service.

SAVE THE BIRDS

Some of the youngsters around town seem to think that birds should be killed and are busy with their flips, which is against a city ordinance.

Birds are very necessary to the successful growth of fruit and all plant life. They kill the insects and worms which feed on the foliage and fruit. Boys should be taught that birds must be protected rather than destroyed.

The bird house campaign inaugurated by Miss Johnson, principal of the Central school, is a good method of teaching boys and girls to save the birds.

CORSICANA

The farmers are all busy harvesting wheat.

Ira Garrison and Guy Sappinfield motored to Cassville, Monday.

Mrs. Nova Terrel returned home Sunday from an extended visit with relatives near Verona.

Miss Mary Wells returned home Sunday from an extended visit with relatives near Stella.

PLEASANT DALE

Most everyone who has wheat are busy cutting and shocking it.

Misses Bess and Nell McCormick and Lillie Burns picnicked at Neosho Springs, Thursday.

Mrs. S. B. Timmons returned from Springfield, Wednesday where she had been visiting her daughter, Miss Edna who is in St. Johns Hospital.

Misses Exie, Tibbie and Jennie Fay Williams spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Matt Durbin.

Miss L. Burns who has been visiting W. T. McCormick and family, returned to her home in New Orleans, La., Friday.

Floyd Wright who has been ill for some time with typhoid fever remains about the same.

Mrs. A. Hayse who is visiting her parents at Green Forest, Ark., is expected home in a few days.

Among those who spent Sunday afternoon with Misses Bess and Nell McCormick were Misses Hazel and Pauline Pitts, Anna and Letha Walton, Ted Walton and Lloyd Lippe.

Miss Neva and Winnifred Long who attends Normal at Springfield, spent the week end with home folks.

WHY THAT HEADACHE?

When you know the cause of a disease a cure may often be effected. This is particularly true of headache. Headache often results from constipation or a disordered condition of the stomach which may be corrected by taking a dose or two of Chamberlain's Tablets. Try it. These tablets are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.

OFF SHORE--A FLASH of color--and he was gone through the waves. But soon above the surface came this flash of color again. It was a beautiful thing--this bathing suit, and we have lots like it in all colors.

HOMER
Louise Homer
 sings an old negro melody
"Oh, Boys, Carry Me 'Long"
 by Stephen Foster

In this song one will enjoy the full beauty and color of Mme. Homer's voice, accompanied by a chorus of men's voices.

Victor Red Seal Record, 87309

Two beautiful songs of plain human sentiment—
"Mother's Hands"—sung by Henry Burr
"When the Harvest Moon is Shining"— sung by Charles Hart and Lewis James

"Mother's Hands" sung in notes as clear as a bell. There is a beautiful violin obbligato and an equally beautiful interlude.

"When the Harvest Moon is Shining" is a love song—with the voice harmonies set in an orchestral background.

Victor Double-faced Record, 15665

"Jesus, My Saviour"
"Let the Lower Lights Be Burning"

Sung in a wonderful manner by Olive Kline and Elsie Baker with faultless vocalization, faultless truth of tone and with deep, calm feeling.

Victor Double-faced Record, 45177

"Oh! How I Laugh When I Think How I Cried About You"
"My Sahara Rose"

These are the first two numbers by Victor Roberts (a new Victor artist), a tenor singer of popular songs.
